EXCEPTIONAL, TAILORED TRAVEL TO ITALY

Have you always wanted to visit Italy? Do you want to avoid the masses (mostly) and experience the real heart and soul of this great land and people? Are you clueless about how to make that happen? Then Michele Shah may be just the person you are looking for. English born and schooled but has lived in Italy for most of her life. She knows the food, families the people, the animal and agricultural places, the vine and the wine makers behind some of Italy’s iconic wines. Perhaps you want to learn how to make pasta, take part in a Locher’s cooking course, or indulge your senses in the sublime cuisine of the world’s most famous (and historical) family, Mario Novello. Maybe exploring the world’s oldest apothecary or immersing yourself in the magnificent Dolomites is more your style. Whatever your needs, this woman can satisfy them.

Michele’s trips are on a strictly small group and the duration can vary from 4 to 7 days. The costs for hotel, meals, tastings, local travel and planned activities are included. Travel expenses to Italy is not.

Tour destinations include travel to Tuscany, Liguria, Piedmonte, the Dolomites, Veneto and Sicily. If you would like a more detailed itinerary, please drop us an email at michele-shah@gmail.com

By combining years of experience, knowledge and contacts made during her career, Michele is able to offer you unique, personally tailored and innovative itineraries. Combining this with the additions of unique personal, cultural and gastronomic experiences and activities for an enjoyable, unique and unforgettable experience.

How about some wine tasting in the most beautiful Italian surroundings which you have only ever seen in the magazines?

Yes! I can certainly say that our trip with Michele was the best visit to Italy we have ever made. Now we have experienced a little more of real Italian color!
